Prior to being named head coach, he spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Southwest Minnesota State, helping lead the Mustangs to a 46-17 record, including an NSIC championship and North Central Region championship in 2001.

A native of LaMoure, N.D., Stemen came to Southwest after spending four seasons as head coach at North Dakota State College of Science (1993-97), a two-year school located in Wahpeton, N.D.

As a head coach at NDSCS, he led the Wildcats to a 70-40 record which included two NJCAA Division I Region 13 championships and twice was named Region 13 Coach of the Year. He coached three JUCO All-Americans and had five players sign NCAA Division I scholarship offers.

SMSU LATE IN THE GAME: Making plays down the stretch on both ends of the floor is a major key for teams in earning victories. The following are SMSU's and its opponents' offensive and defensive statistics averages in the final five minutes of its 25 games this season:

	<5 min.	FG%	3-FG%	FT%	REB	PTS	TO
SMSU	.431	.310	.752	4.6	11.0	1.4

SMSU DEFENSE IN THE FIRST: The Southwest Minnesota State defense was outstanding last season allowing opponents to score just 61.4 points per game setting a school record, while ranking seventh in the country. A major reason for the high ranking was SMSU's defensive play in the first half. During last season SMSU held opponents to 30 or less points in the first half in 21 of 30 games and in nine of those games held teams to 23 or less points.

Through 25 games this season it's been a different story as opponents have made 308 of 641 (.481) shots in the first half and are averaged 31.7 points. SMSU has held just nine of its 25 opponents to under 30 points in the first half.

KEEPIN' THE OPPONENT UNDER 70: As listed in the above notes, SMSU has played solid defense in recent years, which has been a trademark under head coach Greg Stemen. During Stemen's tenure on the Mustang sideline, SMSU is 80-18 overall, including 13-1 this season, when limiting opponents to 69 points or less.

MUSTANGS MAKE R/A HOME SWEET HOME: The R/A Facility is now in its 12th season as the home of SMSU basketball and has been a tough place for opponents to play in. SMSU has compiled a record of 118-45 (.723) and has had just one losing season in the arena. SMSU has now recorded double figure victories at home in three straight seasons.
